10 CENTS PER WEEK

THE NIGHT WILL BE BRILLIANT

If The Board of Public Works
Order Is Followed.

Hereafter There Can Be No Hanging
Signs Over Pavements but the Electrical Signs.

RULES GOVERNING THE SIGNS.

The board of public works yesterday afternoon adopted rules governing the hanging of signs over pavements, and issued a sweeping order for all except electrical signs to be removed by January 1. Electrical signs will be permitted to overhang the pavements, but strict rules are outlined to be followed.

No electrical sign shall be wider than half its length, and its length shall not be such that will cause it to extend past the curbline. It must hang not lower than the ceiling of the first floor, and before the sign is permitted to be set, will have to pass the inspection of the board of works and city electrical inspector.

The street inspector was directed to notify merchants all over the city to comply with the order, and he started today. Wall signs, those against walls, will not be affected by the new order. The board of works had been mapping out the rules for some time the control of street signs having been placed entirely in its hands by the legislative boards.

There is a license fee attached to the electrical signs, 10 cents the square foot, and all electrical signs must pass periodical inspections by the city electrical inspector. The board reserves the right to revoke permission to hang signs.

PYTHANS INSURANCE LAWS.

New Regulations, Affecting 80,000
Policy Holders Adopted.

New Orleans, La., Oct. 25.—New insurance laws affecting 80,000 policy holders were officially adopted yesterday by the supreme lodge of the Knights of Pythias. The features are: Increase in maximum policy from $2,000 to $5,000; increase in age limit at which members can be insured from 50 to 60 years; creation of new fifth class of insurance. This class involves complete change from the old fraternal congress to the American experience table with interest at 3 1/2 per cent.

There will be an annual accounting system and dividend policy returning to members at the end of each year all over and above the cost of carrying the risk and expense of management. All policies under the new system will become incontestable after three years.

Privilege is given policy holders in the fourth class to transfer into the new fifth, taking the same amount without new medical examination.

ATTACKED BY FOOTPADS.

Party of Young Men Put to Flight and One of Them Robbed.

Glasgow, Ky., Oct. 25.—While a party of young men from Horse Cave were returning home from Cave City they were attacked by unknown parties and a shower of rocks hurled at them. All of the party ran except a young man named Parsons, a well-known painter of Horse Cave. He ran up an embankment to see who threw the rocks and was struck in the head with a rock and rendered unconscious. His companions, thinking him ahead of them, did not wait. Parsons, regained consciousness some two hours later and made his way to a farm house, where he was given attention. He says he was robbed of $35 in cash and some valuable papers. No arrests have yet been made.

DUMP GUNS IN SEA.

Taft's Threat to Put Weapons Where They Would Do No Harm.

Havana, Oct. 25.—The statement made by Secretary Taft on the eve of his departure from Cuba that he would put all arms surrendered by the insurgents where they would do no further harm, was verified today when a company of Cuban artillery spent the afternoon throwing these weapons into the sea from the outer bastion of Morro Castle. Thousands of rifles and carbines were sunk in thirty fathoms of water.

Lectured for Bootlegging.

Gus Armstrong, colored employed on the river, was lectured yesterday by Police Judge E. H. Puryear for selling liquor into the city jail to prisoners. He promised not to repeat the act. City Jailor Everts had been trying to learn who was responsible for the appearance of liquor in the city jail for several weeks.

OMAHA "COAL TRUST" INDICTED

Grand Jury Acts and Dealers Raise Prices on All Fuel.

Omaha, Oct. 25.—Sixty members of the Omaha Coal exchange today on charges of maintaining an illegal organization to control prices and eliminate competition. Simultaneously came an announcement of an advance in fuel prices by all dealers. Anthracite was raised 50 cents and soft coal 25 cents a ton. All dealers adhere to the new rates, notwithstanding a court injunction forbids any establishing of prices. They maintain that the advance is simply a market rise.

PLUCKY ENGINEER

DELIBERATELY ORDERS LEG
AMPUTATED.

He Is Carried Conscious for 120
Miles but Dies From the Loss of Blood.

Minneapolis, Oct. 25.—Bernard Unger, the pluckiest man on the Great Northern railway, is dead. Plunged under an engine he ordered a brakeman to cut off his right leg below the knee, and this done after Unger saw the tortoise applied above the joint. One stroke completed the operation and Unger was carried conscious twenty miles on a hand car and one hundred miles on a train to Ely, Manitoba, where he died from loss of blood.

Further Trouble Expected.

Sergeant, Ky. Oct. 25.—Henry Brown aged twenty-four, one of the men that was desperately wounded in Saturday's engagement on Dry Fork, was arrested by Sheriff Crawford. Other members of the faction are yet at large and further trouble is expected.

SERIOUS SITUATION

BROTHERHOOD OF RAILWAY
TRAINMEN LINE UP.

Demand of Eight Hours for All
Switchmen Asked of the Railroads.

Chicago, Oct. 25.—The western railroads are facing a serious labor problem. The Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen on behalf of its switchmen today presented demands to all railroads centering in Chicago for an eight hour day. The Brotherhood's action follows that of the Switchmen's union which presented similar demands some time ago, but the two movements are independent of each other.

The railroads, however, will be obliged to deal now with practically the whole organized strength of the switchmen instead of the fractional part, represented by the Switchmen's union. In this respect the move is the most extensive attempted by railroad employe organization in many years. Every railroad west of Pittsburgh and Buffalo in the United States is involved.

WILL GREEK

Must Serve Out Two Big Fines in the County Jail.

Will Greek is in jail because he failed to pay fines assessed for the violation of the county liquor laws. He was fined in Justice Charles Evers' court and in County Judge Lightfoot's court for selling intoxicants without a license. He owes about $60 to the magistrate and $75 in county court, all of which he was unable to pay when arrested on two capias yesterday afternoon. The second violation caused Greek's arrest.

BIG STRIKE THREATENED.

Southern Pacific Up Against Strike of All Trainmen.

San Francisco, Oct. 25.—The Southern Pacific railway is threatened with a strike of engineers, firemen, conductors and trainmen generally, extending over the entire system. After a conference between representatives of the union and the company officials a disagreement was reached which is most serious. The men want advances ranging from ten per cent up, and an eight-hour day.

A SUIT AGAINST THE DICK FOWLER

For Discrimination With Passengers
Brought at Cairo.

Negroes Who Are Denied a Ride in the Cabin With White People
Sue for Damages.

SOME FINE POINTS COME UP

A case of great interest to steamboat men and the traveling public comes up for trial at Cairo today in the suit of some negroes against the steamer Dick Fowler for refusing to allow them to ride in the cabin with the white passengers, and some fine legal points will be made.

According to the Illinois law, there is no distinction made between the different races on common carriers, in fact there can be no discrimination, but under the Kentucky laws separate coaches have to be provided.

The suit is for $10,000. In cases of jurisdiction on the Ohio river it has been decided that Kentucky's jurisdiction extends to the Illinois banks, and this point will probably be made in the case at Cairo, and if sustained the owners of the Fowler will win.

POPE EXHAUSTED

PIUS HAS TO GO TO BED.

The Collapse Came This Morning
After Audience With the English Pilgrims.

Rome, Oct. 25.—Thoroughly exhausted as a result of holding several interviews Pope Pius was forced to take to his bed. The pontiff was so greatly exhausted he practically was carried to his room. The collapse came this morning after he received the English pilgrims.

FATAL FIGHT IN BREATHITT.

One Man Killed and Another
Desperately Wounded.

Jackson, Ky., Oct. 25.—Will McIntosh, aged 17 years, was desperately wounded in a fight with Mose Caudill at Athol. Caudill was instantly killed by Robert McIntosh, brother of the wounded man.

The McIntosh boys had gone to the home of Caudill, who had married their sister, to take away the little daughter of their sister, who had died. Caudill resented this and the fight ensued, in which Caudill was killed and Will McIntosh was mortally wounded.

Sam McIntosh came with his wounded brother to Jackson for medical aid. With two big pistols buckled around him. He was at once arrested by Sheriff Breck Crawford and is now in jail.

CLEW TO ROBBER OF ANNA HEID

One of Two Suspects Believed to Be Located in Baltimore.

Cleveland, Oct. 25.—One of the two men suspected by Anna Heid, the actress, as being the robbers who stole $150,000 worth of jewels from her on a Pennsylvania train while coming into Cleveland yesterday morning, is reported to have been located in Baltimore by the detectives. The jewels were taken from her stateroom while the actress and her husband, Florence Ziegfeld Jr., were absent. They were in a small satchel, which also contained over $3,000 in money, bank books and papers, which the actress said she valued at over $100,000 and with the jewels, comprised her entire fortune.

AGED AND RICH; TAKES A WIFE.

Terre Haute Man Marries to Lighten
Burden of His Years.

Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 25.—Col. W. E. McLean, one of the wealthiest men of this city, 75 years old and decrepit, married today, Miss Oliver, aged 30 years, a distant relative, that she might accompany him to Florida, care for him in his declining years and inherit his riches. Fire in Chicago.

Chicago, Oct. 25.—Six firemen were rescued, unconscious, in a hundred and twenty thousand dollar incendiary fire in west Pulliam this morning, which destroyed the Sullivan Palmer Candy factory and premises of Ansell Steel company.

SECRETARY MOODY

Rumored He Will Undoubtedly Be Appointed to Supreme Court.

Washington, Oct. 25.—While no official statement is obtainable, unofficial information confirms the report that the president will appoint Attorney General William H. Moody, of Massachusetts to the vacancy by the retirement of Associate Justice Henry B. Brown.

The announced intention of the president to appoint Mr. Moody to the supreme court bench came as a surprise, as it was generally understood that he had eliminated the attorney general from consideration in that connection because of the fact that Massachusetts already had a representative on the bench in the person of Associate Justice Holmes.

Mr. Moody's nomination will be sent to the senate when congress convenes, but the general expectation is that he will not take his seat on the bench until about January 1, when, as previously announced, he expects to retire from the attorney generalship.

THE ELEMENTS' DESTRUCTIVE WORK

Fire Department Without Water
To Fight Fire.

Drug Store and Three Residences in Rowlandtown Feed Flames
Till They Are Satisfied.

OUTSIDE THE WATER LIMITS

The Paducah Pharmacy company and three residences located in Rowlandtown just outside the range of the fire plugs burned last night, between 9 and 10 o'clock. The property is a total loss, partly covered by insurance. The conflagration started in the residence of the drug store proprietor, and quickly spread, aided by the strong wind. It required a short time for the flames to do their work, and while the work of destruction progressed, the Nos. 1, 3 and 4 fire companies had to stand by and watch the work, being unable to reach a fire plug.

The fire originated in the residence of C. C. Peal, manager of the drug store. It spread to the drug store and finally jumped over to the residences of J. E. Bailey, watchman for the Illinois Central, and A. E. Vineyard, a carpenter. The occupants of the houses had but little time to act, and saved but few possessions.

The Peal store and residence were owned by G. Holt, with some insurance and the Vineyard and Bailey residences by Dr. B. B. Griffith who carries insurance. The household effects of Peal were lightly insured. The loss will amount to $5,000, including the stock of goods in the drug store. The cause of the fire has not been determined.

Chief Wood's statement. "When I returned from Dallas, Tex., from the annual convention of fire chiefs, I mentioned the fact that water main extensions were needed for fire protection in Rowlandtown." Chief Wood stated, "and Mr. Muscoe Burnett, manager of the water company, agreed with me. He stated, however, that he cannot get enough residents and property owners to pay the company to make the extension. There is little insurance carried on property in that suburb, because of the lack of fire protection. There is a move on foot to have a petition presented with the requisite number of names to the legislative boards to extend water mains to that section of the city."

Chief Wood stated that he had investigated the loss fully last night. The drug store was half insured in stock and the residences were not protected at all.

INTERSTATE COMMISSION.

Will Meet at Louisville to Investigate
Kentucky Railroads.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 25.—The session of the interstate commerce commission being held at Knoxville and to be held here is the result of the resolution adopted by congress that an inquiry be held to determine whether or not the railroads of the country have any interest in the coal or oil lands of the United States and it follows the increase in the price of coal in Kentucky.

Entombed Miners.

Columbus, O., Oct. 25.—Bodies of three miners were found in the Mullins' mine, near New Philadelphia, after working hours last night. State Mine Inspector Harrison was notified this morning. It is supposed the miners made a "shot" and returned too soon and were suffocated by gas arising from the blast. They were not missed for hours and a search made resulted in finding the bodies.

Des Moines, Oct. 25.—Asserting it was forced to compete with rivals who paid no freight in Iowa the Agar Packing company has filed a suit against the Rock Island railroad claiming $450,000 damage.

BALKING AUTO'S NARROW ESCAPE

Col. Ben Weille's Auto Chooses
Peculiar Place To Stop.

It Breaks Down on the Railroad
Track and an Accident Is Narrowly Averted.

WAS PUSHED OUT OF THE WAY.

Col. Ben Weille by his quick action saved his fine automobile from serious damage last evening about dusk. He pushed it out of the way of a string of freight cars being pushed by an engine, and just in time. He missed the cars but a few feet.

Col. Weille was driving his machine west on Broadway. At Eleventh street he started across the railroad tracks, slowing up as a precaution. When on the tracks the machine stopped. No amount of persuasion could induce the automobile to go, and Col. Weille left his seat and frantically waved to an approaching train to stop, but he was not observed in time.

Driven to desperation Col. Weille gave a desperate push and the machine started. He used "force" to an advantage and succeeded in pushing the automobile out of the way just in time.

His Life.

Sections of Erdman Act Is Declared to Be Unconstitutional.

Louisville, Oct. 25.—In the United States district court today Judge Walter Evans discharged the case against J. M. Scott, train dispatcher for the Louisville and Nashville railroad, charged with violating the Erdman act, which seeks to prevent interstate carriers from keeping their employes out of labor unions. The court held that section 10 of the act is void because it is not a regulation of commerce within the meaning of the commerce clause of the constitution, and therefore beyond the power of congress to enact. The suit was brought by the Railroad Telegraphers' union.

HUNDREDS OF LIVES

Threatened in a Powder Explosion at Actna, Ind., Today.

Actna, Ind., Oct. 25.—Hundreds of employes of a big powder plant here narrowly escaped death in an explosion today, due to the action of two men stealing explosives from the mill. A big boarding house was blown up and Lona Beahlers employed there, was fatally injured. She stepped on the stolen explosive when she went to the men's room to clean it. An explosion followed, which blew the house from its foundation, twisted it and hurled the girl into a field with one leg torn off and the other so mangled as to necessitate amputation.

BIG MEN

Form a Trust to Control Products of the Country.

New York, Oct. 25.—Products of the farm, butter, milk, eggs, poultry, are the objects of the latest trust just organized under the name of the American Farm Product company, capitalized at two millions preferred stock. The company I said to have a hundred millions back of it and its purpose is said to be to corner the market on such products and reap big profits by their sale. The financial backers are Thomas F. Ryan, Harry Payne Whitney, Levy P. Morton and others.

OVERSLEEPS, JOB LOST; SUICIDE

Milwaukee Kills Himself Because He Misses Chance for Work.

Milwaukee, Oct. 25.—Because he overslept and lost a job, John Becker, a laborer, committed suicide by taking carbolic acid today. Becker had been out of employment for some time. Yesterday he secured a job, but had to rise at 3:30 o'clock to go to work. This morning he awoke late. Dressing quickly he ran to the place only to find that the job had been given to another man who had appeared on time. Becker on his way home purchased a bottle of carbolic acid and going to the basement drained the bottle.

KANSAS CITY FIRE

OF BUILDING.

The Chamber of Commerce a Mass of Flames When Firemen Arrive
Last Night.

Kansas City, Kan., Oct. 25.—Four known dead and thirteen persons unaccounted for were brought out of a fire which destroyed the Chamber of Commerce building, used as a tenement, last night. The missing list includes seven men and boys, two women, three girls and a baby. Many are injured, some seriously. When the firemen arrived the entire building was ablaze, and fire ladders raised did not reach above the third floor. The walls finally collapsed and many inmates fell into the blazing pile.

FIEND'S DEED

BURGLAR ATTACKS CHILD WHO DISCOVERS HIM IN ROOM.

In an Effort to Stifle Its Screams, Stabs Child Four Times in the Head.

Louisville, Oct. 25.—John O'Brien, the seven-year-old son of Mr. C. R. O'Brien, of 1830 Brook street, had a fearful experience at 4 o'clock this morning with a burglar. In an effort to check the child's screams the burglar stabbed the child four times on the head with a knife or chisel, and seizing him as he sprang from his bed in an effort to escape from the room dashed him with all force against the wall. Mrs. O'Brien, who had been aroused by the child's first cries, rushed into the room as the burglar fled. She found her son lying unconscious on the floor in a pool of blood.

BULL HOLDS GIRLS PRISONERS.

Sisters Climb Phone Pole and Cling
There, Exhausted, Six Hours.

Minneapolis, Oct. 25.—Pursued by a bull, Marie and Julie Carlson were forced to take refuge on a telephone pole in a lonely spot near the city in the midst of the cold drizzle this afternoon. When they were rescued from their perilous position six hours later both girls were on the verge of collapse, and they are now ill in bed. One of the sisters heard a noise behind her and looking around, saw the bull coming, head down and tail up. Pushing and pulling each other, the girls in their desperation climbed the big pole to the lower iron rungs, and there clung for hours while the vicious brute pawed the ground and butted the pole in his rage.

TO NEW ZEALAND.

R. L. Jones Ships a Lot of Chickens to a Far Distant Country.

R. L. Jones, manager of The Pines poultry farm, yesterday shipped three fine chickens to T. Hansen, a poultry dealer in New Zealand, and the route is the longest ever mapped out by the local American Express company. The fowls go via New York and will pass through Japan and China also through Australia before reaching their destination.

Mr. Fish chose to bend his energy toward placing the Illinois Central under the immediate control of a man in whom he had confidence, in the hope that in this way Wall street would be kept a little further away from the property. At any rate, he is said not to have chosen to calmly sit down and await the falling of the axe which has been suspended over his head ever since Edward H. Harriman gained a majority of the board and presumably a controlling interest in the stock of the company.

NEW PRESIDENT FOR I. C. RAILROAD

The Retirement of Fish Would Put Harahan In Line.

W. J. Harahan Would Then Be Made Second Vice-President of the Great System.

CHANGES ARE MERE RUMORS

The retirement of Mr. Fish from the presidency of the Illinois Central will undoubtedly be succeeded by several changes in the personnel of the official management of the road. It has been rumored for several weeks that in the event Mr. Fish lost his fight with Mr. Harriman the former's successor as president would be J. T. Harahan, now the second vice-president. The hasty return of Mr. Harahan from Europe last summer at the outset of business hostilities between Mr. Fish and Mr. Harriman gave this rumor the color of probability, for the reason that Mr. Harahan is identified solely with the operating department of the Illinois Central, and his presence at the Fish-Harriman clash could hardly be desired or sought for its effect upon the issue. It was hinted at the time that the urgent request for Mr. Harahan to forego further pursuit of his vacation in Europe was Mr. Harriman's desire to discuss with him the presidency of the Illinois Central. It should be understood in this connection that the relations between Mr. Harahan and Mr. Fish are cordial, and apparently have suffered no strain because of the rivalry between the latter and Mr. Harriman for control of the policy of the Illinois Central. Should Mr. Harahan be promoted to the presidency, his successor as second vice-president will probably be his son, W. J. Harahan, whose advancement has been steady from the beginning of his career with the Illinois Central.

Mr. W. J. Harahan is very well known in Paducah where he has a host of friends, and the rumored changes in the officers of the system will create great interest here. His rise in the railroad business has been very rapid. Only a few years ago he was superintendent of the Louisville division, and went from there to New Orleans and then to Chicago, his present position.

Grammer May Get It.

Chicago, Oct. 25.—That Stuyvesant Fish has sold out his interest in the Illinois Central railroad to Edward H. Harriman and has agreed to retire from the presidency of that company will, it is generally believed, soon be announced by the parties interested.

This announcement, it is stated, awaits only the acceptance by Geo. J. Grammer of an offer of the presidency of the Illinois Central to succeed Mr. Fish, his selection having been made jointly by the Harriman and Fish interests. Mr. Grammer is now vice-president of the New York Central lines west of Buffalo, and in charge of the western traffic of those lines. His choice to run the affairs of the company under a ten-year contract at a salary of $100,000 a year is declared to be a part of the agreement whereby Mr. Fish drops the Illinois Central lines and surrenders to Edward H. Harriman. This surrender, however, if it has been made, is only partial, in that Mr. Grammer, it is expected, will pursue the Fish policy sufficiently close to prevent any of the troubles which Mr. Fish apparently fears might follow the delivery of the road into Harriman control.

The final act of the Illinois Central drama is said to have been played at a conference held in Newark last Monday, after Mr. Fish and the attorneys had hurried back from the annual meeting held in Chicago.

Mr. Fish, it is asserted, knew when he went into the annual meeting that his tenure of office was, at best, short. It was not expected the Harriman interests would immediately and forcibly retire Mr. Fish, but that he would be permitted to hold the presidency for another year, while his power would be shorn by the appointment of a finance committee, to which all matters of importance and of policy would be referred.

Mr. Fish chose to bend his energy toward placing the Illinois Central under the immediate control of a man in whom he had confidence, in the hope that in this way Wall street would be kept a little further away from the property. At any rate, he is said not to have chosen to calmly sit down and await the falling of the axe which has been suspended over his head ever since Edward H. Harriman gained a majority of the board and presumably a controlling interest in the stock of the company.

WEATHER—Fair tonight and Friday moderate temperature. The highest temperature reached yesterday was 67 and the lowest today was 43.

SWITCHMAN CAUGHT BETWEEN TWO CARS

John Hancock Has A Narrow Escape From Death.

Engineer Joe Pierce Has A Thrilling Automobile Ride, and Now Prefers His Engine.

NEWS OF THE RAILROAD FOLKS.

Caught between two "bad order" cars with his left hand tightly wedged between two defective draw-heads, John Hancock, a switchman employed in the local Illinois Central shop yards, had a narrow escape from death. The fact that the "bummers" held tight saved his life.

Hancock, one of the crew of switch engine No. 1562, was sent in to unchain two "bad order" cars. The engine stood several feet from the string of cars. From some unknown reason the engine started moving, and with a crash struck the cars.

There was a cry and investigation developed Hancock was the victim. He was wedged between the two cars he tried to unchain. His left hand was badly mashed and but for the bumpers holding, might have been crushed to death.

Willing hands carried him from the scene to the hospital for attention. It is thought the hand will be saved although it will be permanently injured.

Hancock resides on Jackson street, and is a popular young railroad man.

Joe Pierce's Auto Ride.

Engineer Joe Pierce, one of the star throttle guides on the fast flying Louisville-Paducah Illinois Central passenger trains, says he has had enough of automobilizing, and is content to stick to the shining rails.

The experience that clinched Pierce's determination to keep away from the "autos" occurred in Louisville, but is known all over the division now. He met up with an "auto" driver in one of the parks. The driver knew Pierce to be a "highball" engineer and invited him to ride.

Pierce accepted. "I kept saying 'let her go,' and every time I remarked that he was not running on schedule time he turned a crank of some kind by his pilot wheel," Pierce declared. "We were soon 'going some,' and had a good road to travel. It was level and such a thing as a moving van was out of reason. This was the last thing we expected to see, but it loomed up ahead of us before we knew 'what was what.'"

"I could not jump because I had no time. Riding in engine cars and autos are different, and I did not know how to leave the car. The driver seemed to be a lightning calculator and before the fragments of my scattered mind were collected, we were riding a steep hill and were safe. We had grazed the moving van which was carrying a load of household effects. That is my last ride in one of those machines. Give me the 'highball' every time. I know where the rails are and what is likely to get in my way."

Death of I. Rova.

News of the death of Mr. Isaac Rova, formerly general foreman of the Paducah Illinois Central shops, and later master mechanic of the Illinois Central at Mattoon and East St. Louis, Ill., reached Paducah this morning when John Schroeder, general foreman of the Illinois Central shops, returned from Chicago where he had been on a short vacation.

Mr. Rova died in Chicago while working at his trade—that of machinist. He had not been in good health for several months, and Foreman Schroeder attended the funeral. He was stationed here for several years, coming from Evansville. After two

Frank Budde Loses Pet.

"Gyp" is dead and in his passing one of the smartest of the canine race is lost.

"Gyp" was the pet of the Frank Budde family residing at 1904 South Twelfth street. He found the dog on the street when it was a pup and took it home. By diligent application he trained the dog to perform tricks that few dogs are credited with.

"Yes, 'Gyp' was poisoned," Mr. Budde regretfully related. "Some one threw poisoned beef into the yard. My pet never harmed anyone and the loss is not easily replaced. Gyp was trained thoroughly and I do not hesitate to say he was the smartest dog in Paducah. I would command him to bring me my house slippers, and he never failed to understand. Likewise my paper, and when my wife was visiting neighbors I would often tell Gyp to go and get her and Gyp would search the neighborhood until he found her and by gentle tugging on her dress he let her know she was wanted, and accomplished his mission."

ADVANCES FOR POSTAL CLERKS

Department Will Ask Increase of $3,000,000 in Appropriation.

Washington, Oct. 25.—First Assistant Postmaster General Hitchcock, in a statement today in connection with his recent announcement that he would recommend a substantial increase of salaries for postal employees, said the sum recommended will permit the promotion of 75 per cent. of the clerks in the grade below $900, about 50 per cent. of the clerks receiving $900 and $1,000, about 40 per cent. of those receiving from $1,100 to $1,200 and about 30 per cent. of those receiving over $1,200. An appropriation of $25,700,000 will be urged for clerks of the first and second class offices, an increase of $3,000,000 over the current year, of which increase $1,370,000 is for employment of additional clerks and the rest for promotions. The estimates provide for the promotion of 16,300 clerks in first and second class post-offices. The department also is considering an amendment to the present law permitting payment of a higher compensation to letter carriers.

Mr. Hitchcock today explained that higher salaries were necessary to secure and retain competent men and insure "an efficient conduct of the postal business."

Doctors Say "Drink Beer"

Distinguished Physicians Are Leaders of the Opposition to Total Abstinence.

In the United States and throughout the civilized world there is a fast-growing, determined, intelligent opposition to the total abstinence crusade and those persons are now recognized as the real temperance workers—temperance workers with a mission—who advocate the substitution of mild, healthful beverages, like beer, to take the place of strong liquors.

The most learned and distinguished physicians advocate the moderate, temperate, use of stimulants, and they agree that pure beer is the best of all. Prof. C. A. Ewald, M. D., one of Europe's most renowned scientists, says:

"A moderate use of stimulants, within the limits of prudence, is not only permissible, but necessary, especially if the mental or physical efforts of the individual are extreme."

We might go on and enumerate thousands of similar expressions from men of equally high standing in the medical and scientific world, but space forbids. It should suffice to say that throughout the world, the popularity of beer as a healthful, mildly stimulating, temperate beverage is increasing, and with the increased popularity of beer comes greater temperance among the people.

According to the greatest physicians and scientists, there is actual need among all people for such a beverage as beer. The best beer, Pabst Blue Ribbon, contains only a little over three per cent. of alcohol and is rich in wholesome food elements. It is truly a temperate drink. All doctors agree that this small percentage of alcohol—not enough to be intoxicating—is exceedingly beneficial because it stimulates digestive activity and nerve force. The food strength of the beer makes it nourishing to body and mind alike.

Those who appreciate the very finest quality in beer drink Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer, because they know of its absolute purity and cleanliness, its superior food value derived from Pabst exclusive eight-day barley malt, and its low percentage of alcohol. Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer, the choicest of all bottled beer, is the beer to keep in your home—the best beer to drink and the most healthful.

HEARST BETRAYS LABOR'S CAUSE

None Of Its Candidates Appears On The Ballot.

This Latest Proof Of His Insincerity and Double Dealing Will Be Costly To Him.

DEVELOPMENTS OF CAMPAIGN.

New York, Oct. 25.—Hearst has paid the price of the Tammany endorsement by which he secured the Democratic nomination for governor of New York. In doing so he has sold out the labor element and the real believers in the Independence League movement.

This much of the greatly mixed New York political situation was cleared up yesterday when Thomas F. Smith, secretary of Tammany Hall, in the presence of Boss Murphy, and with his sanction, declared that in the contests before the election board the law committee of Tammany Hall and the Hearst managers had all along worked together in sympathy. Secretary Smith voiced the satisfaction of Mr. Murphy and the other members of the executive committee of Tammany Hall when he reported that Tammany had been successful all along the line in getting the petitions of its candidates for places on the official ballot under the symbol of the Independence League, and had succeeded in knocking out practically all the petitions of the labor candidate and other deluded followers of Editor Hearst.

So Tammany is to be with Hearst, and everybody is to take up the cry of Boss Murphy that the Independence League leader must be elected.

Labor Given Double.
The labor men have all along said they were being given the "double cross" by Hearst, and they can no longer doubt it. Few of the twenty-seven labor candidates for the assembly and congress will get on the official ballot. Their only recourse now is to the higher courts.

It is claimed today that this latest proof of Hearst's insincerity and double dealing will cost him a large part of the labor vote of Manhattan and that the defection will reach into the other towns of Greater New York. It will nullify much of the effective campaigning that he has done in the factory and mill towns up the state. Whether the leaders of Tammany can deliver their votes to counteract the storm that will be raised against Hearst by the deluded labor men remains to be seen.

Hearst-Murphy Fake Fight.

It has been a subject of great wonder why Boss Murphy so complacently accepted the abuse that Hearst has been heaping upon him from the stump, and allowing to go unchallenged the statement that there never had been nor would there be an understanding with Murphy or any other boss. This was all cleared up today. Murphy and the Hearst managers have been feeding the New York public with a lot of "fake" fighting, and until yesterday it had been for the most part taken at its face value. District Attorney Jerome swallowed a gob of it when Murphy put out his talk about the Independence League candidate trying "to shake down" the Tammany nominees, started a grand jury investigation. Hearst undoubtedly will have a lot of explanations for what happened today before the election board but it is generally believed he will ignore it as he has done his tax dodging Star holding company, under which he manages his newspaper properties.

The effect of this latest development will also extend to the voters who stood by Hearst in his majority campaign, when he was an out and out opponent of the bosses. He has already lost a large share of this support because of his deal with Murphy, but has managed to hold a considerable part of it by his pretended split with Tammany Hall.

AN APPEAL TO WOMEN

Professor Alexander Haig, M.D., Physician to The Royal Hospital for Women and Children, of London, one of the world's greatest authorities, has proven that most diseases, especially diseases of women, Menorrhagia and Dysmenorrhoea (painful and irregular menstruation) are plainly caused by uric acid.

For the benefit of all ailing, weakly women, we urge his explanation of common sense.

HOW URIC ACID CAUSES WOMEN'S DISEASES

Many women overwork themselves, are nervous and worry, and many others do not take proper care of themselves during the menstrual period.

From these causes comes disease. The uric acid always present in the blood is deposited in little sharp grains like sand and lodge throughout the body.

Imagine the pain and irritation they cause in the delicate female organs. This is the cause of women's weaknesses.

To all women we appeal with the proof of their greatest specialists. We urge the remedy of common sense.

THE APPROACH OF URIC ACID DISEASES
Painful, profuse, suppressed or scanty menstruation, backache, bearing down feeling, nervousness, lassitude (tired feeling), sleeplessness, poor appetite, headache, constipation—all show uric acid at work.

IF YOU HAVE ANY OF THE ABOVE SYMPTOMS, ACT AT ONCE. Take LIFE PLANT before serious womb or ovarian trouble comes. If you are suffering from disease, cure yourself in a common sense way—drive out the cause of disease—uric acid.

The Best Place to Buy And Why

FIRST WHY--We own our business house; built it years ago when it cost very much less than it would cost now; and all we have to charge up to rent is the interest on the money then invested.

SECOND "WHY"--We pay cash for every dollar's worth of merchandise that comes into our stocks, and thereby save enough in discounts to amount to a pretty fair profit.

THIRD "WHY"--The great bulk of our business enables us to buy in quantities large enough to secure "inside prices" all the season, and always be first in line for end-of-the-season bargains, which manufacturers always have to offer.

There are other "WHYS," but these are enough for illustrating the point. And because of these and other "whys" we are keeping down prices and keeping up qualities; although everything's gone up, and we, like other merchants, are paying more for goods this season than ever before.

One of the most potent of these other "whys" is that we do not specialize on any one line, though we, of course, have our favorites, just as you would. Instead, we offer for your approval six complete and perfectly fashioned lines of ready-service clothing, each conceded, by those who know, to be the best of its class.

Canterberry Fine Clothes--For particular men. Suits and Overcoats $20.00 to $45.00.

College Brand Clothes--For the young chap who expects originality in cut and fabric. Suits and Overcoats $10.00 to $30.00.

The Washington--One of our late acquisitions in really fine things. Suits and overcoats $18.00 to $30.00.

The Hamberger--A line of clothing for which there is a large and steady demand from our regular customers. Suits and overcoats $15.00 to $25.00.

Henry J. Brock & Co.'s Union Label Clothing--Made from beginning to end by skilled union workmen. Suits or overcoats $7.50 to $25.00.

The Walcott--The strongest popular priced line on the market today. Suits and overcoats $7.50 to $15.00.

SHIRTS

Stiff Shirts and winter-weight soft shirts; imported Madrases and Oxford cloths; and pique bosoms, with matched percale bodies. Regular and coat styles; attached or separate cuffs; E. & W., Manhattan and our own brands; in the new plaids and checks and popular conservative patterns. Prices $1 to $5. Same qualities as heretofore, with no raise in prices.

TIES

50c Neckwear--the same high-grade silks which have always gone into our famous half-dollar neckwear--Baratheas, reps, Bengalines, etc.; French fold and lined four-in-hands, all the newest patterns, novelty and conservative.

WAISTCOATS

Our handsome window of Parker & Finn's late creations in Fancy Waistcoats is attracting wide-spread attention. See the window. $2.50 to $10.

BOYS' AND YOUTHS' CLOTHES

Worthy of very special attention is our exhibit of new belt suits, single and double breasted, with plain or bloomer trousers and the new ideas in Sailors, Russians and Norfolks. They are high grade novelties, to be found only at our store, and of which we will have no duplicates. Priced from: $5.00 to $15.00.

The Boys' Knee Pants Suits which we sell at $2.50 to $10 and the Reefers and Overcoats at $3.50 to $12.50 are such goods as sell elsewhere at $3.50 and $4.00 to $12 and $15. The highest class goods in novelty and standard styles are displayed.

Our Youths' Suits, Overcoats and Raincoats at $7.50 to $25.00 are the same goods which would cost you $10 to $30 elsewhere. And in these we show practically everything that's shown in men's clothes--at prices about 25 per cent. lower. First, investigate the style, the price and fitting qualities offered you at Weille's. After that, look elsewhere if you wish. You see, we have no doubt of our ability to please you.

A pair of extension roller skates given free with each suit costing $3.00 or more.

AS TO SHOES

On the Stacy Adams and Nettleton $5 and $6 shoes and the Barry $3.50 shoes for men--for which we are sole agents--the prices remain the same, although our cost is more, and there's never been a thought of reducing quality on these goods. We show them in all the current styles; undertake to fit perfectly everybody in them; and guarantee every pair sold. On our Weille Specials for men at $3.50 and our $1.50, $2.00 and $2.50 shoes for boys the old prices are maintained and the qualities guaranteed as good as ever.

THE SOUTH'S ATTITUDE.

"It is hard for a man to do right when he is expected to do right. It is infinitely more difficult for him to do right when everybody expects him to do wrong."
Thus spoke the Rev. T. J. Newell, addressing the conference of the Colored Methodist church in this city. His words could not have been better timed to controvert the blasting arguments of James K. Vardaman, governor of Mississippi and candidate of the United States senate.

Vardaman seeks the abrogation of the fifteenth amendment of the constitution and says this:
"The negroes in the south, notwithstanding the millions of dollars we have spent in attempting to educate them, are becoming more irresponsible, more disrespectful of law and more animal-like in their characters and desires."

He is a self-exploiting politician, anxious to say something that will catch the ears of the telegraph editors.
The Rev. T. J. Newell is just as true a southerner as Governor Vardaman, very much more of a gentleman, and infinitely superior intellectually. But he is a Christian gentleman extending hope and good will to members of another race, struggling up toward the light, and so he says:

"To say that you have not done the best you could would be the truth. No man does the best he can. You have, however, come a long way in the last forty years. Don't let anybody become discouraged, for amid the darkness and the blackness I see the light of a better era dawning. The time has come when the good white men and the good black men must stand together. The best friends the colored people have in the world are here in the south. The best friends the white people in the south have are the southern negroes. The best way for this land to become the best land on God's earth is for the white man and the black man to stand together for righteousness."
Vardaman contributes this remarkable bit of original information to the sum of human knowledge in support of his pretensions:

The laws now specifically recognize the difference between the white man and the Indian, the Chinaman, the Eskimo or the Malay. There is just as wide a gap between the white man and the negro.

The laws of the United States recognize no difference between Malays, Chinese or Caucasians who are citizens of this country. Our immigration laws may put up the bars on certain aliens, but a Chinaman stands on a level with the white man before the bar of justice.

It is the attitude of men such as Vardaman that inspired Dr. Newell to say in pity: "It is hard for a man to do right when he is expected to do right. It is infinitely more difficult for him to do right when everybody expects him to do wrong."

We believe that Dr. Newell and not Vardaman represents the true sentiment of the south.

THE WATER CONTRACT.

The water contract the council has ordered submitted to the voters at the election next month is receiving careful consideration, and, where given, every one seems to favor it. The mayor approves of it, and has ordered the entire contract printed in the local papers every day so that all voters may acquaint themselves with it.

The contract will meet with some opposition from some people who think they see in it something that will blind the city up so that it won't be in a position to erect its own water system in event it wishes to do so. However, a reading of the contract will not reveal anything of that nature.

"I am in favor of the city making the contract the council proposed," said Mayor Yeiser, "and I see no reason for any opposition to it. There is nothing objectionable in it, and I shall vote for it. Every man, woman and child who knows anything about such matters knows that I favor the city owning its own water works plant, and if this contract would prevent anything of that sort I should oppose it. As it does not, I favor it."

The contract means a saving to the city of $100,000 in 15 years, and it does not in any way affect the right the city has to purchase the water plant at any period that it can under the company's franchise.

As the contract is to be found in all of the papers, it is the duty of all voters to read it so that they may vote on it intelligently. Don't take any one's word for what may be in it, or what is not, but read it for your self.

The rise of Secretary Cortelyou to one of the most important posts in the government should be an inspiration to every young man with any ambition and energy. Cortelyou was a mere stenographer in one of the departments at Washington during Cleveland's administration, and one day Mr. Cleveland having some very important stenographic work to do, asked for a good man, and Cortelyou was sent to him. He made such an impression on the president that he was kept as one of the stenographers to the president. When McKinley came into office he was retained, and at the death of McKinley's secretary, Porter, Cortelyou was promoted to the position. How well he discharged the duties of that office and his progress since is known to every newspaper reader. Roosevelt retained him as secretary. Then he took him into the cabinet as secretary of commerce and labor; made him his campaign manager and brought him back after the election to the postmaster generalship, where he has made signal success in his work of reorganizing one of the greatest of the government departments, and now he goes to the treasury department, which in many particulars is the most important branch of the government occupied by a cabinet officer. Let every young man take fresh inspiration from Cortelyou's success, there are many like him in the country, and only opportunity is needed to bring them into the limelight.

The park bond issue is meeting with support from every source, according to the reports of the park commissioners, and will carry. It is probably the best scheme for giving the city parks that has been devised. Under the law, 5c on the $10's assessment each year is to go to the park commissioners, and the board is merely asking that a bond issue of $100,000 be made, so that it can buy all the park sites now, and it promises to take care of the payment of the bonds, and the interest thereon out of the park fund. In this way the parks won't cost the taxpayers anything.

The issuance of $100,000 for parks won't prevent the city from issuing bonds to erect a light plant or water system, regardless of what some sore heads will tell you. Paducah can issue $535,000 of bonds now, and more in case of an emergency, and as the value of the realty increases the amount increases each year.

Mayor Yeiser, Dr. Murrell, H. C. Rhodes and Dr. R. P. Sights are the character of men who first proposed the park system agitated by the park commissioners, and they are to do effective work for it.

The news dispatches say the price of "straight" whisky will go up on account of a ruling of the pure food commission. The Kentucky Colonels, or some of them, will yet drink water.

THE WISDOM OF JAMES J. HILL.

Foresight is the quality for which the associates of James J. Hill consider him most distinguished. Persons who do business in the northwestern quarter of the United States rarely have a new commercial idea except to discover that Mr. Hill thought of it ten or a dozen years ago, and turned it to the profit and supremacy of the Great Northern railroad. So conspicuous is this quality in Mr. Hill that not a few persons describe him in terms which are the commercial equivalent of seer and prophet. When, therefore, Mr. Hill bends his mind to the future of the United States, to fall to pay attention would be recklessness. Mr. Hill's present warning is that we are rioting through our natural resources with criminal improvidence. "By 1950, iron," he says—and Mr. Hill knows iron—"will have retreated almost to the company of the precious metals. The peril is not one of remote geologic time, but of this generation." And the heedless waste of coal and all our other natural resources points the path to the same economic poorhouse. It would be interesting to know whether it was a grateful regard for the feelings of the Republican party or merely the limitations of time which forbade Mr. Hill to point out the tariff as the most obvious abettor of the waste of our resources.

The remedy for threatened exhaustion of natural resources lies in the hoe. We must turn industry and intelligence away from the factory and back to the farm. The soil, differing from iron and coal, is only renewable wealth. It is the only dependable resource to give food and comfort to the two hundred million Americans of forty-five years from now. We must point inventors, chemists and scientists to the consideration of earth "agriculture, in the most intelligent meaning of the term," says Mr. Hill, "is something almost unknown in the United States." Instead of it we have "a light scratching of the soil and the gathering of all it can be made to produce by the most rapidly exhaustive methods." Agriculture must be more intensive. The individual farmer must have fewer acres and more hoes. He must nurse his soil, and see to it that it produces more next year than it did last. Evolution in farming is taking the direction which Mr. Hill points. Irrigation is making the change. Farming an irrigated ranch is a problem in chemistry—there is a fixed quantity of soil, a fixed quantity of sunshine, and the water can be measured out to suit. This kind of agriculture will evolve a very different farmer from the harried and hope less victim of too much sun in May and too much water in July, who has learned to accept the crop that chance donates him. Moreover, irrigated land being more expensive, farms will be smaller—from twenty to forty acres will probably be the unit in the arid west. And in this tendency lies much of the stability of our future.—From Collier's for October 6, 1906.

THE GREATEST PASSAGE IN ENGLISH LITERATURE.

(Edwin Markham in "Success Magazine.")

To ask for the one most justly celebrated passage in English prose literature is like asking for the one most justly celebrated sort of fruit in the orchard. There are easily a score of equally worthy passages, each one making its especial appeal to a different mood of the mind. Ruskin's description of Turner's Slave Ship satisfies our love for the majestic color and motion of the sea. De Quincey's reverie on the Nebula in Orion carries a sense of the vastness and mystery of the sky. Paterson's picturing of the Shield of Hercules rebuilds for us the light and life of buried Hellas. Swinburne's eulogy of Rossetti astounds us with the splendor and speed of his words. Le Gallienne's prose fancy, "The Twelve Wells," stirs our hearts with the precious disquiet of old sorrows. Victor Hugo's oration in "The Man Who Laughs" awakens in us the ennobling passion of humanity. Lincoln's "Gettysburg Speech" hushes the soul with its fine appeal to the heroic in the heart of man.

I might go on to mention Emerson, Poe, Thoreau, Hawthorne, Lake Harris, Jeremy Taylor, as well as St. Matthew, St. John, Isaiah, Job, and other peers in the parliament of words. But I content myself with making the one selection that is perhaps my favorite in most of my moods. I refer to that stately and sonorous passage from Carlyle's "Sartor Resartus," where he sees history, as a stupendous procession, forth-issuing from Chimerian Night and vanishing into pathetic and fathomless Silence. Here is the passage:

"Like some wild-flaming, wild-thundering train of Heaven's artillery, does this mysterious Mankind thunder and flame, in long-drawn, quick-succeeding grandeur, through the unknown Deep. Like a God-created, fire-breathing Spirit-hoast, we emerge from the Inane; haste stormfully across the astonished Earth; then plunge again into the Inane. Earth's mountains are leveled, and her seas filled up, in our passage; can the Earth, which is but dead and a vision, resist Spirits which have reality and are alive? On the hardest adamant some footprint of us is stamped in; the last Rear of the host will read traces of the Earliest Van. But whence? O Heaven, whither? Sense knows not; Faith knows not; only that it is through Mystery to Mystery, from God to God."—Success.

DOES CIRCUS STUNT.

John Rogers, Jr., Takes a Merry-Go-Round Ride on a Fire Hose Reel.

After being whirled about the drum of a hose reel revolving at the rate of 120 revolutions per minute, John Rogers, Jr., a machinist helper in the local Illinois Central shops, turned a somersault and landed safely on his feet uninjured, and with one of the nearest circus feats ever attributed to a professional performer, to his credit.

Rogers belongs to the machinist's fire fighting brigade which is in close competition with the brigade of the car repairing department. When the fire drill was held yesterday Rogers was one of the three who pulled the hose reel away from the plug after the hose had been made fast. His feet were not working fast enough and he went down.

Preferring the dizziness of a good spinning to being run over by the heavy hand reel, he caught the drum and fastened his hands in the hose. He was whirled about and finally becoming frightened let go.

Rogers went high into the air, made a complete revolution and landed on his feet. He was muddled for a short time, but soon was working with his companions. His escape from serious injury is considered a narrow.

County Judge R. T. Lightfoot had the distinction of marrying a couple of Bohemians this morning. They were truly Bohemians, and the bride could not speak English. With his bride he repaired to the nearest place to get the knot tied, which was Judge Lightfoot's office. They hail from Belleville, Ill. The groom was William Paul Steffel, 22 years old, and the bride Magdalena Schybal, 17 years old.

Fall Cases Death.

Munfordville, Ky., Oct. 25.—Mrs. Cleveland Bunch, aged eighteen, died at her home here yesterday afternoon and will be buried this evening at the family burying ground near this place. Two weeks ago, while at work in her kitchen, the floor suddenly gave way precipitating her into the basement below, a distance of several feet. She alighted in a sitting posture, and besides the internal injuries sustained, the shock to her nervous system was so great she never recovered. She suffered greatly until death. She leaves a husband but no children.

The Rigors of Cold Weather. Probably at no time of the year does the physical condition of the body demand more attention than just at this season, the beginning of cold weather.

Let the system be run down, or the blood impoverished by any extent and the cold weather goes hard with you. Naturally the thing to do is to get the circulation in good order, and the whole system toned up to stand the rigors of winter.

Some physicians prescribe the daily cold bath, others seek recourse in blood tonics and other stimulants, but probably the most rational treatment of all is the Osteopathic, as Osteopathy more quickly, and more effectively rights the blood flow and restores normal conditions than any other known treatment. Osteopathy is only a natural treatment, a method of bloodless surgical manipulations to remove any obstructions interfering with the proper transference of nerve force, or natural blood flow, or the other fluids, to the organ or part involved.

I should like to have you call and let me tell of some Paducah people whom you know well that Osteopathy has done much for, and also to tell you what it will do in your particular case. My office hours are from 9 to 12 and 2 to 5, 516 Broadway. Phone 1407. DR. G. D. FROAGE.

DETECTIVE MOORE TO PAY ONE CENT

The Popular Detective Wins Suit Against Him.

Jones and Grosshart Held Over to Circuit Court by Police Judge Puryear.

THE GRIND OF THE COURTS.

One cent and costs was the verdict read in circuit court this morning when the jury reported its action in the case of E. B. Osborne against Detective T. J. Moore and his bond, the Title Guaranty and Trust company. The jury got the case yesterday afternoon late and reported just before noon.

Detective Moore received information that Osborne was wanted in McKenzie, Tenn., for carrying a revolver concealed on his person. He was arrested here and held some time pending word from the Tennessee police. They failed to send here after him and Osborne filed a suit for $19,000 damages against the detective and his bond.

The case of Helen Seltz against the Paducah Traction company, and S. H. Jewell against the Paducah Traction company, were continued.

The case of E. S. Diuguid against Charles A. Wagner and others was continued.

Held to Circuit Court.

More evidence was heard in the case of Charles Grosshart, Charles Tremaine and Wood Jones for selling overcoats that did not belong to them.

Jones was warranted this morning after the court had secured sufficient evidence to show that he aided Grosshart in selling the coat. Tremaine was heavily drunk and took the garment from a room over the Marble Hall saloon. He did not remember of the act. Witnesses say that Jones took the coat from Tremaine when Tremaine fell in a drunken stupor.

Judge Puryear held the Jones and Grosshart boys over and is reserving his decision in the case against Tremaine, an old actor who appears to be highly educated and the victim of bad associates and equally as bad liquor. Tremaine pawned one of the two coats stolen. They belonged to Proprietor Wilson, of the Marble Hall saloon.

James J. Tinsley filed a deed in county court today transferring to the Paducah Brewery company two horses and a wagon for a debt of $200.

Charged With Fighting.

Jim Harrison, colored, was arrested this afternoon by Patrolman Aaron Hurley on a warrant charging him with striking Charles Williams, another negro, with a buggy spoke. The fight occurred Monday at a pool room on lower Kentucky avenue, and Williams is still in bed suffering from a serious wound in the head. His sister appeared and swore out the warrant. Harrison is charged with malicious assault with intent to kill.

New Charge in Arrest.

Lennie Vance and Will Hayes, colored, operators of a pool room on lower Kentucky avenue, were arrested this afternoon charged with permitting a minor to play pool.

Police Court.

Matthew Scott, colored, was presented in police court this morning charged with grand larceny. He is alleged to have stolen a gold watch and revolver from Margaret Bell, colored. The evidence seems to be circumstantial.

"Scott was the only man in my house before I missed my property," the negress declared when swearing out the warrant. "He had knowledge of where I kept the watch and pistol. I did not see him get the property, but have been told that he tried to sell a pistol."

It is another of those complicated cases for the court to ferret out. The woman has been unable to find the man who claims that Scott tried to sell him a pistol. Scott works for E. D. Hannan, the plumber, and has borne a good reputation.

Other cases: Alfred Gains, colored, disorderly conduct, continued; Pat Gorman, disorderly conduct, dismissed; Charles Bates, using foul language on the streets, $25 and costs; Henry Hedges, using profanity on the depot platform, $10 and costs.

Deeds.

Victoria Carrel and others to Geo. W. Smith, property in the county, $2,500.

Verdict Reversed.

Attorneys Hendricks, Miller & Marble have received notice of the reversal of the case of Richard White's, administrator, against the Chicago, New Orleans and St. Louis railroad in the appellate court. White was killed while working on Tennessee river bridge. The administrator sued for $25,000 damages and the case was taken to the federal court. The action of the Livingston circuit judge was appealed to the state court of appeals and the Paducah attorneys won. It is to be tried at Smithland next term of court.

Marriage Licenses.

James Rice, Massac, 29 years old, to Ida Sherron, Lone Oak, 24 years old.

Andrew J. Livesay, of Franklin, Ky., 43 years old, and Sidney Arterbery, of Franklin, 55 years old, were married this afternoon at the county court house by County Judge R. T. Lightfoot. The groom has been married three times and the bride twice.

WOMAN'S SLAYERS.

Chicago Murderers Had Made Careful Plans and Awaited Chance.

Muscantine, Ia., Oct. 25.—A man supposed to be Leonard Leopold wanted in connection with the alleged slaying of Mrs. Margaret Leslie, the actress, in Chicago, was arrested here yesterday on a Rock Island California train.

Chicago, Oct. 25.—In the type-written confession of Howard E. Nicholas, the theatrical manager who with Leonard Leopold, a Juggler, killed and robbed Mrs. Margaret Leslie, an actress, early Thursday morning, was made public by the police.

The murder had been planned by the two men in Nicholas' room in the Palace hotel three days before it was executed, and each night after the details were arranged the two kept watch in the corridors, until at last a favorable opportunity for carrying out the plans arrived.

The plans for the murder and its successful execution as outlined by Nicholas in his confession rival the best efforts of the melodramatic pen, and so neatly were its details carried out that a coroner's jury returned a verdict of suicide, and the police practically gave up work on the case until Mrs. Leslie's father came to the city, insisting that his daughter was killed, and demanding that the authorities sift the mystery to the bottom.

PERMANENT PASSWORD

Adopted by the Knights of Pythias at New Orleans.

New Orleans, Oct. 25.—The practice of changing semi-annually the password of the Knights of Pythias was abolished today by order of the Supreme Lodge. It was decided to substitute a permanent password in place of the semi-annual word. The Supreme Lodge spent several hours in secret session considering other matters of the ritual. Action upon the proposed insurance changes gave place temporarily to this ritualistic work.

It was announced that statutes relative to the board of control, endowment rank, had been changed to increase the number of members from seven to nine, one of these new members to be selected from the Supreme Lodge and the other to be the outgoing supreme chancellor.

Chicago was selected for permanent headquarters of this board.

The river is falling here slowly but steadily. The gauge this morning registered a stage of 9.3, a fall of .2 in the last 24 hours. Business at the wharf continues quiet.

The Harth arrived from the Tennessee river yesterday and left today for the same river after ties.

The Dick Fowler had a good passenger trip to Cairo this morning. Barges repairing continues at the ways and dry docks.

The Evansville Courier says the Louisville packet Morning Star arrived in Louisville yesterday with a full crew of farmer boys. The negro rowsters had become scarce so they are trying white labor. On the face of it, it looks like the farmer boys are better than the negroes, but experience of Paducah boats has shown that white labor will work hard on a spur, then burns out in a short time.

The Louella, a small pleasure gasoline boat, arrived yesterday on the way to New Orleans. The Louella has come all the way from Detroit without leaving the water except between Pittsburg and Philadelphia. The boat went through the great lakes, through the Erie canal and down to Philadelphia.

The towboat Wm. Eldenhorn with a fine new railroad transfer barge in tow, passed down from Pittsburg yesterday with the Red river as the destination.

The Dunbar was the Evansville packet today. The Henry Hayley arrived at 4:30 yesterday afternoon and left soon after on the return trip.

The Kentucky will arrive from the Tennessee river tonight.

Sixty beacon lights will be established by the government along the banks of the Monongahela river between Pittsburg and Fairmont, W. Va., as a result of years of agitation by pilots. The United States light-house tender Golden Rod, in command of Capt. H. M. Horton, arrived there yesterday, and the work of establishing the lights will start to day. Commander James H. Oliver, United States navy, in charge of lights of this district, will be aboard the Golden Rod and designate the places where the lights shall be erected. For each light a tender living in the vicinity will be selected and the positions carry a salary of between $5 and $12 per month. As the Golden Rod is too high to pass under the Brownsville bridge the government boat, General Theodore Schwan, will be used above the bridge. There are now in that district along the Ohio, Kanawha and Tennessee river 546 lights which every night throw out beacon lights over 1350 miles of river and the lights of the Monongahela river will be numbered from 547 to 606. Pilot William Gilmore will be at the wheel of the Golden Rod during the trip. George Thompson, a deckhand on the Enterprise, was drowned Monday by falling overboard. He lived in Parkersburg. The accident occurred 75 miles above Cincinnati.

BRYAN REGRETS

UNABLE TO COME TO KENTUCKY—WISHES SUCCESS.

Says Best Way to Support the President Is to Elect Democratic Congressmen.

Washington Oct. 25.—The letter from William J. Bryan to Chairman Griggs of the Democratic congressional committee, explaining why he will be unable to visit Cincinnati, Ky., and incidentally predicting the complexion of the next house of representatives, was made public today and is as follows:

"Hon. J. M. Griggs:—Dear Mr. Griggs:—I am very sorry that it is impossible to go to Cincinnati, Ky., but as I wired you all my time is taken until election. I wish you would convey my regrets to our Democratic candidate for congress in that district and say to him that I am very anxious for his success. The indications are that we shall have the next congress, and then our Democratic house can send to the senate remedial measures and join issues with the Republicans if they refuse to adopt them.

"The Republican leaders are so under control of predatory wealth that they will not support the president when he attempts to follow Democratic advice and secure some reform. The president does not go far enough or fast enough in the direction of reform, but his political associates are all the time throwing obstacles in his way.

"The best way to support the president is to elect Democrats in the place of Republicans, for the records show that the Democrats have stood by him better in the senate and house than the Republicans have. My interest in this campaign has been shown by the fact that I am devoting every day to campaign work. If your invitation had come earlier, I would have set apart a day for the Cincinnati district. Yours truly,

"W. J. BRYAN."

SAM JONES' STORY

HOW HE COMPROMISED WITH WIFE AFTER MARRIAGE.

A Typical Story of the Eccentric Divine Which He Always Enjoyed to Tell.

The best of all stories ever told by Sam Jones was that which brought him to a clear understanding with his wife the morning after they were married. He told it in a sermon, off-hand, and had every eye in the congregation moist. There had been a good deal of strife in some households, spats between husbands and wives, separations, divorces and other troubles. Sam said: "I'm going to try to stop it. It's all nonsense. Maybe I can't get at you old fellows who have been nagging at your wives for many years, and been nagged back till you have lost your manhood; but I'm going to say something for the young married folks and those who contemplate matrimony.

"You all recollect when me and Mrs. Jones got married. Most of you veterans were there that night, and ate of the wedding supper. We all had a good time. We stayed up late. The young folks danced and we looked on. By and by the midnight hour sent you all home, and Mrs. Jones and I went to bed. When I woke up next morning there she was sleeping like an angel alongside of me. She was beautiful to look upon as you all know. She's beautiful yet, God bless her! Beautiful in her love for me and our children, beautiful in her domesticity, beautiful in character. To have such a wife is the pinnacle of hope, the summit of happiness. To think of her is to praise God!

"I awoke her with a kiss and said: Mary, what is all that white stuff on the rocking chair? I never saw it before."

"Why, Sam, it's my clothes," she replied, with a lovely blush. Then I pointed to another chair and said: 'And, Mary, what are those things? They have a familiar look.' She answered:

"Why, Sam, dear, those are your breeches. Why do you ask such silly questions?"

"Because, Mary, I want to have a plain, clear, frank understanding with you. We have agreed to travel the long road of life side by side. There will be things for you to do and things for me to do. Let us make up our minds there shall be no conflicts on the journey. There are my laces and rickrack; there are my breeches. Mary, I want to ask you which you intend to wear during our life, the laces and rickrack, or the breeches?" She didn't hesitate a moment, but said:

"Sam, You wear the breeches; I'll stick to the laces and rickrack."

SUED AS HUSBAND; HAS ALIBI

Rich Pennsylvanian Says Another Impersonated Him at Altar.

Pittsburg, Oct. 25.—Peter F. McCool, a wealthy man of Butler, alleges that he was impersonated at the altar by some one whose identity is yet a mystery and that he is not the man who married Mrs. Frank Walker. Mrs. Walker is suing McCool for desertion and nonsupport. McCool visited New York and the clergyman who performed the marriage ceremony and the witnesses of the rite all unite in saying that the Butler man is not the bridegroom. McCool's signature is different from the one on the marriage certificate, signed by the unknown. McCool has started a hunt for the man who impersonated him.

50,000 CLUB

MEMBERSHIP IN THE ORGANIZATION TO BE SOLICITED.

The Commercial Club Extends the Time for the Closing of the Campaign for Members.

At Monday night's meeting of the Commercial club the directors decided to extend the time limit for closing up the contest for prizes for memberships in the Fifty Thousand club, to January 1st. Owing to the immigration convention, horse show and farmers' institute attractions, the Fifty Thousand club and Paducah buttons has been allowed to drag somewhat. Now the directors and members of the Commercial club propose to put great energy into this Booster Button proposition and push the membership of the Booster club until every citizen in Paducah is wearing a button, thus signifying that he is not only helping establish the fund for general advertising of the city's natural advantages, but that he is a booster of Paducah, first, last and all the time.

Those who are unfortunate enough to be caught on the streets or elsewhere without a button, will be in a hopeless minority, and it is assumed that no citizen of Paducah will not willingly contribute fifty cents to a general fund for general advertising, which will benefit all citizens.

Some of our enterprising merchants have been generous enough to donate some valuable prizes to be used in building up the membership of the Fifty Thousand club. The aggregate value of these prizes amount to about $400. It is hoped that our young people and others interested in the progress of Paducah will actively compete for these prizes. It is necessary to sell one hundred buttons in order to enter the competitive list. Some young ladies have already sold as many as seventy-five buttons, only requiring a small number of additional memberships in the Fifty Thousand club to obtain a valuable prize of a seventy-five dollar diamond ring.

NEWS OF KENTUCKY

"Straight" Whisky Up.

Louisville, Oct. 25.—Most Kentucky distillers expect an immediate advance in the price of all Kentucky distilled whiskies, and all are jubilant over the outlook.

The definition of the term "like substances," made by Dr. H. W. Wiley, chairman of the pure food commission, is made a subject of much discussion among whisky dealers in Louisville, and many varying opinions may be heard. The discussion generally settles down to the fact that the straight men like the definition and the rectifiers do not.

The straight men will probably not "lie down," for they feel that it is now "up to" them to carry the questions involved in the recent rulings of the pure food commission to the courts. It is likely that a number of actions will be instituted as soon after January 1 as is convenient.

Secretary Daniel Stauber of the National Wholesale Liquor Dealers' Association, in his letter to the members of the association, advised the members to proceed as usual with their business, as there are many sections of the rules and regulations promulgated by the commission "which have not the force and effect

BURTON ENJOYS THE RECESS

Kansas Is Allowed to Make Visit to Boarding House of Wife.

Ironton, Mo., Oct. 25.—Joseph R. Burton was given a half hour's recess from prison today by Sheriff Marshall. He met his devoted wife in the street and drove with her to the house where she is boarding. The couple were apparently in the best of humor. The former senator, who has been making friends by cracking jokes and telling stories, said half humorously today to the sheriff when he obtained the recess: "I want to comply with all your regulations. If at any time I request anything not compatible with your rules kindly call my attention to it." Mrs. Burton expressed her gratitude to the sheriff. She is preparing her husband dainty meals.
